CANADIAN TYPE COINS

by Bill English

To show a complete type set of coins as the requirements for a display of this nature would be practically impossible for most collectors. Therefore type sets could be made up of one coin of each denomination showing size alone. This would include a large cent, a small cent, a silver five cent piece, a round nickel, a Tombac nickel, a ten cent piece, a twenty cent piece, a twenty-five cent piece, a fifty cent piece, a dollar, five, ten and twenty dollar gold pieces and a Canadian sovereign. 1968 would add a change in size of a fifty cent and dollar coin.

Type sets could be made of all denominations of one monarch, or a type set of Monarchs or a type set of any one denomination. The most popular type set has been the commemorative coins of Canada which until 1967 included a 1951 nickel and the rest silver dollars. This display would now be complete only with the 1967 set of coins included. A collector who has been fortunate enough to collect proof-like sets could make a type set of proof-like coins from 1953 to date.

The 1967 series is an interesting centennial type set of coins. To be complete it should include the twenty dollar gold piece and the silver medallion, even though the medallion is not a coin, it is part of the centennial mint issue of coins.

The diversity of a type set of Canadian coins is such that no one can say exactly which particular coins constitute a type set. Diversity there is, thank goodness, so the collector may choose a type display to fit his collecting interest and pocket book.

I hope that it is clear that a display of coins can be complete without having all the coins listed as type coins as long as the theme or series or particular specific grouping is complete. A good example of what I am trying to say is illustrated by a display of 1947 maple leaf coins. As I explained I do not believe these coins were produced from a master die and therefore, do not fall into the Canadian type coin listing. On the other hand, as a group of coins they are all related by a common bond of the maple leaf. They could be displayed as a type of coin but not as a Canadian type set. The different sevens in the fifty cent pieces and the dollars, which I believe were punched into the working dies (subject to confirmation from the mint) would eliminate these coins from the Canadian Type Coin category.

The re-engraving and variation in location of date numbers in the Victorian coins and the fifty cent series of the 1940's and the 1926 far, medium and close six, five cent piece also indicate a change on the working die rather than a new master die.

We are including a separate sheet listing the Canadian Type Coins. We invite your suggestions (with reasons) for any changes you feel are necessary. For any member wishing another copy of the list, please send a self-addressed envelope to Bill English, Box 4, Waterloo, Ontario.

1968 C.N.E.-O.N.A. Coin Display - August 15 to September 2

We are fortunate to again have Vince Doran of Toronto accept the chairmanship of this year's Toronto Exhibition display. Arrangements have not been finalized but we understand that the Queen Elizabeth Building will be this year's location of the display. Vince and the Association will be calling on you to assist by supplying displays and a little of your time, if possible. Please assist when called upon. Thank you. Bill English, President.

CLUB NEWS

BRANTFORD COIN CLUB

The theme for the March meeting is Africa. Our guest speaker is the well known Dr. J. M. Moyle who recently made a movie of his trip through Africa, recording on sound the splendor in natural color Africa as seen by tourists. The members exhibited coins of African Nations as a tie-in. A Point System has been worked out to determine the winner of the President's Award 1968. 5 points are to be awarded for a display, and by a membership vote, the best of the night wins another five points for the exhibitor. A member may win a further 10 points if they write a paper on their exhibit or give a short talk on same. At the end of the year the exhibitor with the most points is the grand winner. The President's Award winner for 1967 was Mrs. Mary Hilborn - a free membership.

CORRECTION - With reference to the Chedoke Numismatic Society's essay Competition- The essay to be 3,000 words not 300 as previously reported - Editor.

"The kindness you spread today will be gathered up and returned to you tomorrow".

John Barchino Editor

CENTRAL COIN CLUB -

Vince Doran notes that The Central Coin Club's new EXPERTS TABLE is very successful and popular with the club members and guests. The club has been having various experts at each meeting with displays on special numismatic subjects. Here are a few examples scheduled for future meetings:

Dr. Edward Burns -- Winner of the C.N.V.C.A. Founder's Trophy for the most interesting and educational display in errors and varieties found in Canadian decimals.

Ricky R. Morse -- Regional Director of the C.N.V.C.A., Province of Ontario, multiple first prize winner on displays education people on "How to Detect Counterfeit Canadian Banknotes".

Jack Veffer - Secretary of the Canadian Paper Money Society, displaying rare banknotes seldom seen, even by many numismatists.

Steve Oko -- Canadian Director of World Proof Numismatic Association displaying World Proof Sets from far corners of the world. The Hotel's huge parking lot has ample room for free parking, and coffee is free for members and guests while waiting for the nightly auction by Larry McNeill, President and Auctioneer.

HAMILTON COIN CLUB -

Guest speaker at the March meeting was Joe Szeker who delivered a tale of treasure hunting entitled "Padre Island". Door prizes were two books entitled "United States Paper Money and Miscellaneous" (A.N.A. Publication) and O.P. Eklund, "Copper Coins of Italy". Also there were four door prizes for pairs of uncirculated English pennies of 1966 and 1967. Twenty sets were donated to the Club by a friend of Lindsay McLennan. All of these sets will be included in draws at the next five meetings. There was also a Members' Bourse and a Display table.

HURONIA NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION -

The March meeting was March 21 at Barrie. A very interesting letter was received from a collector in Nova Scotia with comments on an article printed in the H.N.A. Newsletter for March, 1967, Vol. 7, No. 3 -- "Dear Sir: In an article on Victoria coins reprinted from your Bulletin in the February issue of the C.N. Journal is the following - "All Canadian cents dated prior to 1891 have their maple wreath with large leaves; whereas issues subsequent to this year feature small leaves." With other collectors, I too, was under the same impression. But in 1965, in correspondence with Hans Zoell on the subject of large and small leaves, particularly in the 1891 issue, I find the following: One cent 1876 to 1882 are also small leaves, but from 1884 to 1891 they are all large leaves design." Interesting, isn't it?

N. Howcroft, Editor

INGERSOLL COIN CLUB -

The March meeting on March 18th is in the Ingersoll & District Memorial Centre Meeting Room and is highlighted by a talk and display on a little known but colourful side of numismatics "Collecting Dairy Tokens" by Alan MacNab.

The following little gem was discovered by your President on a notice board in the plant where he works. Trying to ascertain where it originated, he found it had been copied from an Ontario School reader. He thought you might enjoy it.

Money - Workers earn it. Spendthrifts burn it. Bankers lend it. Women spend it. Forgers fake it. Taxes take it. Dying leave it. Heirs receive it. Thrifty save it. Misers crave it. Robbers seize it. Rich increase it. Gamblers lose it. I could use it."

Alan MacNab Editor

LONDON NUMISMATIC SOCIETY-

The March meeting was well attended and it featured an O.N.A. Audio-visual presentation entitled "Canadian Large Cents", and the ever popular Audio-visual program was well received. Winner of the draw for an uncirculated large cent was Mrs. M. O'Neil of London. Several dealers were present and the regular auction was conducted by Messrs. Whitfield, Esler and Elgie. Mr. Allan Mercer operated the club supplies table. The April meeting will be a most interesting meeting as one of our newer members, Mr. Chris Brooker from England presents his first talk to the club members. He will speak on the "Coinage of George III". A display of this coinage will be prepared by the speaker and William Clarke and Graham Esler. Any members having any coins of this monarch are invited to display them. President William Clarke announces that the June meeting will be devoted to a display of Tokens of the World. All members having tokens of any country or or any material should show it.

Lloyd T. Smith Editor.

NIAGARA FALLS COIN CLUB -

The March 13th meeting was the last meeting at the Y.W.C.A. unless plans develop to keep us there. There will be more definite news regarding this in the next bulletin. How many of us know the meaning of the "Liberty Cap"? - Freed slaves in ancient Rome were identified by means of a small red hat. When Saturninus invaded the capitol in 263A.D. he hoisted a cap on the point of his spear, indicating that all slaves who rallied round his standard would be free. This was the origin of the "Liberty Cap" employed as a symbol on early United States coinage.

Editor

NORFOLK COIN CLUB -

Regular meeting March 24th at 7.30 p.m.. The official greeter was Grant Anderson and a film concerning numismatics was presented.

OLD YOU KNOW - A special souvenir booklet in color describing the mint and an embossed box for the dollar coin is available to mark the 60th Anniversary of the Founding of the Mint. An interesting publication now on Canadian Newstands is a paperback book with the title "Canada's Treasure Hunt". This is an account of the search for and recovery of gold and silver coins from the French ship LeChanceau sunk off the coast of Cape Breton near Louisburg in 1725. Keen interest is being shown in paper money collecting in Canada and this was evident at the recent Paper Money Show held in Toronto.

OSHLAWA AND DISTRICT COIN CLUB -

The March meeting was on Sunday, March 24th with Ricky Morse of Toronto as guest speaker. His topic was "Why I Collect Error and Variety Coinage". A general Auction was conducted by Robert Pritchard and some good bargains were picked up. Door prizes of a 1967 Canada Proof-like Set and a Surprise Prize was given. At the last meeting a very interesting film called "The Money Minters" was showtelling us how coins are manufactured from start to finish.

Bruce R. Watt Editor.

CITY OF OTTAWA COIN CLUB -

At the February meeting 38 members and guests were present and it seems desirable to have a permanent record of several items of interest, namely--The Treasurer's reported recorded a very favourable balance, largely through the efforts expended on the 1967 CNA convention when a profit of approximately $3,000. was realized. A short talk by Major Sheldon Carroll on counterfeiting in the Ottawa Valley during the 1860's was enjoyed. He showed the moulds used and two American coins which were produced. There was a very excellent display by Bruce Beatty of a small portion of his collection of War Medals and Insignia, including a specimen of the Order of Canada. The Treasurer reported 36 applications have been forwarded for 1968 memberships in the C.N.A., 26 being non-C.N.A. members prior to this time, with payments for 1969 fees being withheld on behalf of 9 members.

PORT CREDIT COIN CLUB -

The March 12th meeting was cancelled due to poor weather. So we have just a few numismatic notes for you. We were late in dealing in the 50% Copper 50% Silver 10¢ and 25¢ Canadian coins. Our sources said they couldn't tell them apart. There is no difference. Even dropping them, the ring is almost the same as the 80% silver. However, we discovered the difference, we used a micrometer and measure. The 80% silver 25¢ measures 59 to 60 thousands and the 50% Silver Quarter measures 62 to 63 thousands. The 80% 10¢ measures 41 thousands, and 45 thousands for the 50% 10¢ (reprinted from Coin World)

RICHMOND HILL COIN CLUB - All is hustle and bustle around the Richmond Hill Coin Club getting ready for their forthcoming show on April 6th at the Lions Hall, Centre Street from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.. There will be trophies, ribbons, door prizes, bourse tables, auction, draw prizes, free parking. There will be a Special Award for Visitor's Display. Best of luck to the club.

SARNIA NUMISMATIC SOCIETY -

On March 6th the President, Norm Scott, welcomed eight new members and seven guests. One Minute Silence was observed in memory of Henry Hardy, a member recently deceased. The Reception Committee was on hand to welcome the members and guests and to give each a name tag and a copy of "Numismatic Terminology". It was reported that the Blue Water International Coin Show will be held at the Holiday Motel October 6th. The next regular meeting will be April 3rd and will be a trade, swap, buy and sell session.

Fred Osborne Editor

ST. CATHARINES COIN CLUB -

Ninety-two members and thirty-four guests were present at the regular meeting on March 17th. The guests were from Hamilton, Buffalo, Binbrook and St. Catharines. Nine new members were welcomed into the club bringing the membership to 117 senior and 31 juniors. It was suggested that the members bring a picture of themselves and a book be prepared so members may recognize one another more readily. A collection was taken up to meet the expenses of our one hundredth meeting in June and $27.00 was raised for refreshments. The banquet committee was announced and the date has been set for October 19th at Welland Avenue United Church. Four members gave short talks on different phases of numismatics. Rose Thompson spoke on the club scrapbook, Frank Kylie on British Campaign Military Medals, Bob Voaden on the nine different varieties of the centennial bills, and Howard Hill on Early Coins up to 1858. This proved very interesting and it was decided to do this again.

R. Voaden Editor

STRATFORD COIN CLUB -

There were 41 members and guests at the March meeting when final plans for the coin show were discussed. The show will be held on Sunday, May 5th at 1. p.m. in St. Joseph's Parish Hall, Huron Street. It is planned to have eight bourse dealers, displays and a 125 lot auction plus many prizes. The doors will be open at 12 noon for bourse dealers and persons wishing to set up displays. A very interesting coin quiz was presented by Gateon Tardiff followed by a draw for a 1967 silver dollar. The meeting closed with a lunch and the showing of 40 slides of coins photographed at a recent meeting.

Franklin Smith President

THISTLETOWN COIN CLUB -

March 12th meeting will be our fourth birthday party as it was March 17th, 1964 that our initial meeting was held with Lois Hollinshead president. To celebrate our birthday we will have free cake, coffee and pop. The guest speaker is Calc B. Jarvis, FRNS, publisher of Coin, Stamp and Antique News, who will speak on "The Coin Situation in 1968 and its possible repercussions". Cole is in a good position to give such a talk on this subject as he is in constant contact with dealers and collectors alike. This should be of interest to all numismatists so make this a family night. Our lucky draw is a Silver Stamp of Expo.

WATERLOO COIN SOCIETY -

I take it upon myself the job of "scooping", with a brief report on "our" annual Coin Show held at the Walper Hotel on Saturday and Sunday, March 30 and 31. Public interest did not seem as good this year, usually we can hardly move along the passages and rooms. This year there did not seem to be as many visitors. Jack Craig, John Shaw and their committees are to be congratulated on a fine job, everything went off O.K.. Exhibits were down this year and quality not as high, some good exhibits were spoiled for lack of information and "dressing" up. Head table guests included Fred Bowman, Vic Snell (pres. of C.N.A.), John Shaw (President), John J. Pitman (Guest speaker), Lloyd T. Smith (O.A. Past President), Bruce Raszmann (Treasurer), Jack Craig (banquet committee). John J. Pitman gave an exuberant address on "Numismatics 5 years ago and 5 years hence" and as usual J. J. held the audience in the palm of his hand. Prizes galore were won by visitors and club members alike (wot do you think your editor won?-- a waste paper basket--how very appropriate,) Prizes were awarded to winners of various categories. Albert Fuller came into his own--after many years of hard work Albert took TWO firsts--congrats, Albert. Mr. C. W. Mullard took the grand prize, and a grand trophy it was too, but unfortunately Mr. Mullard was not present at the banquet to receive his award. Your Ed enjoyed himself at the show and I can only hope next year will see the show as successful or even more so-- we hope to be there Editor Pat for Hienz. Herzog.

WOODSTOCK COIN CLUB -

The Woodstock Coin Show and Banquet will be held on April 6, 1968 at St. Rita's Church Hall. The general admission charge this year will be $.25 and banquet tickets $2.75. The following display classifications and program schedule will be - Junior Class 15 years and under, First time display, First time junior Display, Canadian Decimal, Medals and Tokens of metal, British Empire and Commonwealth, World Coins including gold, World Currency, Education and Miscellaneous, Grand Award - Best of Show. See you at the coin show.

EX LIBRIS

On the lighter side of numismatics -- being an excerpt from Seaby's Coin and Medal Bulletin, entitled "Collector's Piece by Oliver Warner.

"When I was a young collector, keen and green, I went to hear a paper given to members of a local Coin and Medal Society. The speaker was elderly and distinguished. He was well known, a antiquarian, gruff, sparing of words, and he had the reputation of being reserved in all his relationships.

His subject that evening was the work of Thomas Simon, an artist, who in the time of Cromwell and Charles II, produced a series of coins medals and seals which, so the numismatic world agrees, have never been bettered by any engraver in this country. He produced some choice examples from his own cabinets, and after the meeting was over, braving a rebuff, I had the nerve to ask if I could examine one or two of the items more closely.

Something in my enthusiasm must have appealed to V. for, much to my surprise and pleasure, he asked me whether I would like to visit him one day, to see the fuller range of his possessions. We made a firm arrangement, and in due course I went.

This was the first of many meetings which in course of time grew almost into a habit. V. did not thaw on better acquaintance, for a certain dryness was ingrained, but he was invaluable to a student, for he had so much, knew so much, and was always to the point. His home was a treasure store which I grew to know well. There was scarcely a thing in it unfitted for a museum, but the coins were the cream of the cream. Moreover, while V. knew a certain amount about several branches of collecting, on coins he spoke ex cathedra. Now and a then he would sell me a duplicate, always at a fair valuation. Sometimes he even allowed me what was almost a bargain.

V. and his wife were childless. Mrs. V. was a scholar, though her interests did not extend to coins. She would receive me kindly, be present at the single ceremonial glass of sherry or marsala with which V. liked to accompany our discussions and then she would fade away.

As years went by, my visits grew less and then ceased altogether. V. grew older still, infirmity came to him, and he ceased to receive anyone at all. When he died it was only natural to wonder what would become of his collection.

(to be concluded in May)

To the many clubs and their secretaries and individual members a big thank you in appreciation of all the material you have so kindly sent in. I've had to "blue pencil" it shamefully due to lack of space. But it certainly makes our job easier - Must go now as President Bill English has some further details on his article from Page one. So Buenos Noches -- au revoir -- auf wiedersehen -- so long -- bye for now ---
